Six Flags Marine World

2004 FACT SHEET

OVERVIEW

"It's playtime!"™ at Six Flags Marine World, America's first combination wildlife park, oceanarium and theme park. Celebrate friends, family and fun on 35 rides ranging from world-class thrill coasters to a classic carousel. Escape the stress and boredom of everyday life at nine great shows, including high-flying waterski wizardry in SkiXtreme and the new Looney Tunes revue "We Got The Beat!".

The Park is home to dolphins, giraffes, tigers, penguins, sea lions, elephants, butterflies, walruses and more in 35 wonder-filled animal attractions. Signature rides include Medusa, the tallest and loopiest roller coaster in Northern California; ROAR!, one of America's top-rated wooden coasters; Vertical Velocity, the fastest coaster in Northern California; and Zonga, a one-of-a-kind, world-famous Anton Schwartzkopf design steel coaster featuring four full-tilt, full-circle loops.

The 36-year-old Park sits on 140 landscaped acres beside beautiful Lake Chabot at the Northern California intersection of Interstate 80 and State Highway 37.

NEW FOR 2004

Meet Cupid, the Valentine's Day dolphin, rescued after washing up on a Texas beach, near death, on February 14, 2003, nursed back to health by the Texas Marine Mammal Stranding Network, and delivered swiftly and safely to his new home at Six Flags Marine World by FedEx Express in time for Valentine's Day 2004.

Also new for 2004 at Six Flags Marine World is STARGATE SG·3000, an out-of-this-world motion simulator ride based on MGM's popular sci-fi adventure movie STARGATE SG-1 and its Sci-Fi Channel television series. STARGATE SG·3000 is a battle for control of the universe with Park guests strapped into 100 individual motion pods computer programmed to move in sync with the action-packed high resolution large format computer animation projected on a huge 3,200-square-foot screen.

A new pirate-themed Bird Show called "Treasures of the World", a new Looney Tunes musical revue featuring Bugs Bunny in "We Got The Beat!" and Wildlife Theater's reality show-styled "Island of Survivors" are three new shows set to debut in Six Flags Marine World's 2004 Season.

And meet Sivuqaq the walrus, co-star of the new Adam Sandler/Drew Barrymore movie "50 First Dates", at the Park's Walrus Experience.
