FANS TRADE NEW TOYS FOR RACE TICKETS AT INFINEON RACEWAY TOY DRIVE
Proceeds Benefit Children in Sonoma, Vallejo/American Canyon

SONOMA, Calif. — Infineon Raceway will help spread some cheer during the Holiday Season to needy children in the Sonoma Valley and Vallejo/American Canyon with its 2nd annual High-Powered Toy Drive.

People are encouraged to drop-off new, unwrapped toys during regular business hours at Infineon Raceway at 29355 Arnold Drive, Sonoma, 95476 (Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m.). You can also mail your new, unwrapped toy to John Cardinale at Infineon Raceway. The toy drive will run from Dec. 1-17.

Other drop-off locations include any of the 12 fire stations in Vallejo and American Canyon, or one of the following locations in the Sonoma Valley:

- Schell-Vista Fire Department, 22950 Broadway, Sonoma.
- Valley of the Moon fire stations: W. Aqua Caliente Road at Hwy 12, or 877 Center St., El Verano.
- Sonoma Valley Fire Station, 630 Second Street West, Sonoma.

Those who donate two or more new, unwrapped toys will be rewarded with a FREE ticket voucher to qualifying of the 2005 Infineon Grand Prix of Sonoma American Le Mans Series event, July 16.

To receive your ticket voucher, simply present a photo ID with your new, unwrapped toy to the employee at the front desk at Infineon Raceway. Only two tickets are allowed per family. Those who donate new, unwrapped toys at any of the satellite locations, or by mail, will receive their ticket vouchers by mail. Be sure and mention that you are donating the toy as part of the Infineon Raceway High-Powered Toy Drive, or you will not receive your voucher.

For more information on the Toy Drive, please call (707) 933-3907 or email jcardinale@infineonraceway.com.
