A New Restaurant For Downtown Vallejo

Vallejo, California – November 5, 2003 - Hero Management Corporation is proud to announce a new restaurant project in Vallejo, California with the recent agreement to lease part of the former Vallejo Hotel in the downtown performing arts district.

According to Javier Bujanda, CEO of Hero Management, “The concept we’re working on is California cuisine with an international comfort food twist, served Tapas style for sharing. Everything will be made from scratch with quality ingredients served in a friendly atmosphere. Our reputation will be earned guest by guest, day by day, as we deliver on the promise of providing quality food and sincere hospitality.”

Michael W. Peeler, Chief Operating Officer, says, “We believe that if we take great care of our employees, they in turn will take great care of our guests. We believe in making sure that every guest leaves satisfied.”

Hero Management Corporation is excited to be part of the downtown revitalization and to work with Robert Litwin and Mel Gomez. “We’ve really enjoyed the professionalism and friendliness of Mr. Litwin and Mr. Gomez and we are very excited to develop our new restaurant in this wonderful community,” says Bujanda.

The restaurant is slated to open in the summer of 2004.
