SOLANO COUNTY FAIR TO HOST “SOLANO STARS!” VOCAL COMPETITION

Vallejo, CA – Hot on the heels of America’s infatuation with reality talent shows, the Solano County Fair will play host to the Solano Stars! vocal competition on Wednesday, July 19 at 7:30 p.m. Solano Stars! is one of a series of vocal competitions at several Northern California county fairs this summer. Finalists from each participating county fair will compete for the final, regional title of “Gold Country Star” at the Gold Country Fair in Auburn this September.

Designed to showcase local talent, Solano Stars! competitors must be residents of Solano County. Contestants will be judged on vocal talent, stage presence and entertainment appeal. In addition to county-wide bragging rights, winners will receive cash prizes for first, second and third place. The entry fee for Solano Stars! is the cost of Fair admission: $8 for adults and $4 for children under age 12.

Solano Stars! contestants must be solo vocalists and may sing a-cappella or be accompanied by professionally recorded CD tracks, sans the lead vocals. Duets, trios, bands or other group performances are not eligible and live musical accompaniment is not allowed.

Registration forms for Solano Stars! are available on line at www.scfair.com or can be picked up at the fairgrounds office at 900 Fairgrounds Drive in Vallejo. Completed forms should be returned by Monday, July 17 via email to knagata@scfair.org or via fax to the Solano County Fair at 707-642-7947.
