LOMA VISTA FARM SET FOR ANNUAL HARVEST FESTIVAL

VALLEJO – The Friends of Loma Vista Farm invite you to gather with friends and family at the annual Harvest Festival to be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 15, 2005.

Bob for apples, paint a pumpkin, make homemade apple cider or an old fashioned corn husk doll. Make your own caramel apple and taste delicious goodies from the 4-H bake sale.

Enjoy feeding and petting the animals, enter the scarecrow-making contest and ride a train around the neighborhood.

Lunch will be available for sale by the Elks.

Admission is free and activity tickets will be available for sale. To show your support you can buy farm apparel and plants from the greenhouse. For more information call 556-8765.

Loma Vista Farm is located at 150 Rainier Avenue in Vallejo, behind Loma Vista Elementary School.
