Double Homicide

On October 3, 2012 at 6:09 PM the Vallejo Police Department received a call of shots fired and subjects down in a yard in the 300 block of Foulkstone Way. Officers arrived to find two victims of apparent gunshot wounds, both were pronounced deceased at the scene.

Officers determined that the responsible suspect was in a nearby home. A Vallejo police hostage negotiator was able to make contact with the suspect, who came out and surrendered to officers without incident, approximately 45 minutes later.

Preliminary information indicates that the suspect and victims are acquainted neighbors.

The suspect has been identified as Martin Hohenegger, 65 years of Vallejo. The victim's identities are being withheld pending appropriate notification. They are 50 and 58 years old, both also of Vallejo. They represent the 12th and 13th murders in Vallejo this year.

Anyone with information regarding this case is encouraged to contact Detective Mat Mustard at 707-651-4514 or the Vallejo Police Department at 1-800-488-9383.

Information can be provided to VPD at 800-488-9383 24 hours a day
