$5000 Reward Offered for Bank Robbers

On July 27th 2011 at approximately 11:20 AM the Bank of America at 21 Springstown Center was the victim of an armed robbery.

Four or five black male adults, some armed with handguns, overpowered and disarmed a security officer before vaulting the counters and removing an undisclosed amount of cash. The suspects fled the scene in a stolen vehicle which was later located a short distance away.

Bank of America is offering a $5000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those who are responsible. Attached are two photographs obtained from the bank surveillance cameras.

The two suspects depicted are described as black male adults, 5'-5", 155 lbs and 5'-10", 180 lbs wearing black jackets with hoods.

Anyone with information regarding this crime or the suspects is encouraged to contact Detective Fabio Rodriguez of the Vallejo Police Department's Major Case Section at 1-800-488-9383.
