Burglary Investigation and Arrest

On 08-01-2013 at 1:45 PM, a citizen in the Vista neighborhood reported two subjects that had possibly burglarized a residence in the unit block of El Camino Real. The subjects were described as a Hispanic male adult running from the residence carrying a pillow case. The second subject was described as a white male adult that drove the Hispanic male from the scene in a newer model Toyota Corolla. The witness was able to furnish the police dispatcher with a license plate number.

A patrol officer responding to the call observed the vehicle several blocks from the victim residence and stopped the vehicle in the DMV parking lot at 200 Couch Street.

The pillow case was located inside the Toyota Corolla containing property which had been stolen from the victim residence.

The two suspects, Samuel A. Ketron, WMA-22 of Benicia and Jonathan P. Duff, WMA-22 of Benicia were identified as the suspects in the burglary.

Ketron and Duff were booked into the Solano County Jail on burglary and possession of stolen property charges.
