Carjacking

On August 23, 2013, at 6:54 pm, a victim was confronted by a suspect on the 800 block of Broadway St. The suspect, later identified as Dashawn Williams, pointed a semi-automatic firearm at the victim and stole his 1995 blue Ford Mustang.

Williams fled south bound on Broadway in the stolen vehicle and collided with two other vehicles at the intersection of Broadway and Tennessee. Williams fled on foot east on Tennessee St. Witnesses chased Williams and lost sight of him on Tennessee St. east of Monterey St.

Williams was eventually located inside a business on the 1000 block of Tennessee St. He was taken into custody without incident. Williams was searched and a semi-automatic handgun was found in his waistband. Witnesses identified Williams as the suspect in the carjacking and the hit and run traffic collision.

Two of the victims from the traffic collision were transported to a trauma center with major injuries. The third victim was transported to a local hospital with moderate injuries.

Williams, a resident of Vallejo, was booked into Solano County Jail for carjacking, felony hit and run, possession of a load firearm, possession of a stolen firearm, and being armed with a firearm during the commission of a felony.
