Possession of a Stolen Handgun arrest

On 09-04-2013 at 10:30 PM, Vallejo Police Department officers observed a black 1996 Honda Accord which had been reported stolen earlier in the day parked in a fast food restaurant in the 1000 block of Redwood Street. The vehicle was occupied by several subjects.

As the vehicle was leaving the parking lot, the vehicle was stopped and the passengers were detained. The four occupants of the vehicle ranged in age from 15-17 years old.

During a search of the vehicle, a fully loaded handgun was discovered that had been reported stolen in Tucson, AZ,

The 16 year old driver was arrested for possessing the stolen vehicle and permitting a loaded/concealed firearm in the vehicle. Two rear seat passengers, aged 15 and 16 years, where the handgun was located were arrested on a charge of conspiracy to possess the loaded handgun, possession of a loaded firearm in a vehicle, and possession of stolen property.

At this point in the investigation, at least one of the subjects arrested has been identified as a suspected gang member.

All the subjects were booked into the Solano County juvenile hall. .
