Three People Shot, 187 P.C. Murder

On September 6, 2013 at 11:22 P.M. the Vallejo Police Department received the report of multiple people shot in a car in the 600 block of Louisiana Street.

Upon arrival officers discovered a white Honda parked in the street with numerous bullet holes in the driver's side. The 18 year old Hispanic male driver was pronounced dead at the scene by emergency medical personnel. His name is being withheld pending the notification of next of kin. Two juvenile occupants of the car were also shot. One 16 year old was shot and taken to a local hospital with non-life threatening injuries. Another 15 year old passenger was also shot and had serious injuries. He was transported to a local trauma center and is in serious condition.

According to witnesses a brown vehicle similar to a Honda, drove by the victim's car and opened fire. It was last seen North bound on Marin street from Louisiana street.

At this early stage of the investigation a motive for the shooting is unknown. This is Vallejo's 15th Homicide of 2013.

The Vallejo Police is asking anybody with information regarding this case to contact Detective M. Mustard or Detective F. Rodriguez.
