

VALLEJO POLICE DEPARTMENT
Press Release
(707) 651-7147

July 16, 2009 (2:03 PM)
Detective M. Mustard #569
VPD Case #09-9882

Home Invasion Robbery

On 7/10/09 at approximately 3:45 AM, the Vallejo Police responded to the report of a Home Invasion Robbery that had just occurred in the 100 block of Gregory Ln.

Occupants of the home had gathered to mourn the loss of a family member. A group of seven suspects approached some of the occupants who had gathered in the garage. The suspects produced handguns and began to rob the victims while other suspects forced their way into the home. The suspects woke the sleeping occupants and stole belongs from them. The suspects fled prior to the arrival of the police.

During the robbery several of the 6 victims were physically assaulted by the suspects. One of the victims was struck with a handgun in the head and at least one shot was fired inside the home.

The suspects were wearing disguises during the robbery. They have been described as black males in their late teens to early twenties.

The Vallejo Police is looking for help in identifying the suspects. Anyone with information about this home invasion robbery is asked to contact Det. Mustard at 707-648-4514.

Anonymous tipsters can call Crime Stoppers at 707-644-7867.