

Solano County Water Agency (SCWA) Video Competition

Are you constantly on YouTube checking out the coolest videos? Have you ever dreamed of directing your own movie? Now is your chance! The Solano County Water Agency is sponsoring a video competition.

Gather a group of your friends, family, or classmates and create a short video promoting water awareness. Submit your video for a chance to win valuable prizes and have your directing talents put on display!

For complete guidelines and rules contact the
Vallejo Water Division
(707) 648-5299

Video Theme: The video must have a water conservation theme and/or promote water use efficiency. The competition is open to students attending High Schools throughout Solano County. Program guidelines and prizes will be available soon. Contact your friends & start planning
