17 n. Creditors and parties in interest who file with the Court and properly serve on the 18 City's chapter 9 counsel, a request for special notice; and 19 o. Any party against whom direct relief is sought by motion, application or 20 otherwise, such as the nondebtor party to an executory contract or unexpired lease 21 being assumed or rejected.

22 3. The filing of any pleading in this case, other than a proof of claim, on behalf of 23 one of the Special Notice Parties, via the CM/ECF system, shall constitute that party's consent to 24 receive all future notice through the CM/ECF system; provided, however, that such party may 25 request that notice be sent by first class mail to a specified address, or by electronic mail to a 26 specified address, by both filing with the Court and serving on the City's chapter 9 counsel a 27 request for alternative service and/or change of address so stating. Counsel for any of the parties 28 listed above, if counsel is added or other counsel is substituted in their place, may report this substitution by both filing with the Court and serving on the City's chapter 9 counsel a request for special notice. Counsel making such a request shall receive future service through the CM/ECF system; provided however, that such counsel may, in the request for special notice, request additional service by first class mail at any address.

4. To the extent that the foregoing is inapplicable, any party filing or causing the filing of a motion, complaint, response, objection, notice, application, request, or other paper in

1 this bankruptcy case, shall be deemed to have consented to receive effective notice at the address
2 appearing on such paper, and notice sent to that address shall be deemed to have been brought to 3 the attention of such party.

4 5. Other than as set forth above, and unless otherwise required by Bankruptcy Rule 5 7004(h) or order of the Court, all notices in this case shall be provided by first class mail.

6 6. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the limitation on notice proposed by this 7 Motion shall not apply to those matters or proceedings referred to in Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(5) 8 & (7), (b), and (f), as applicable. Such matters or proceedings shall be noticed in accordance with 9 the Bankruptcy Rules.

10 7. The City is hereby authorized and empowered to establish and maintain a publicly 11 available Internet-accessed website to provide alternative means of access to this Court's docket 12 and to relevant documents via a website maintained on the City's webpage at the City's expense.
13 Specifically, the City's Bankruptcy Website shall provide, without limitation, general information 14 concerning the chapter 9 case, including the case docket, access to docket filings, answers to 15 frequently asked questions, and general information concerning significant matters in the case.

16 8. The City is hereby authorized and empowered to take such actions as may be 17 necessary and appropriate to implement the terms of this Order.

18 9. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from 19 the implementation of this Order.

20 10. This Order shall be served on the List of Creditors filed by the City pursuant to 21 Bankruptcy Code § 924.
